INTRODUCTION

As some of the cousins wanted someone to write up the Decendants of Eli and Nathan Chupp, sons of Fredrick Chupp, I have decided to undertake the task, with Mrs. Dan J. Chupp as helper.

We hope the kind readers will bear with us, and overlook our shortcomings and mistakes.

Some of the family records are incomplete, mostly due to the fact that some parties failed to answer the letters of inquiry at all, or else answered them only in part.

We are thanking you, one and all, for your co-operation in getting this book thus far.

Mrs. Eli D. Hochstetler

Mrs. Dan Chupp

FREDERICK CHUPP

Great grandfather Frederick Chupp immigrated with his parents from Germany in 1809 at the age of 12 years. They settled in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania.

Later he married and became the father of eight children. Great grandmother came from Switzerland. They later moved from Pennsylvania to Holmes County, Ohio.

Church: O. O. A. Mennonite; occupation: pioneer farmer; address: Goshen, Ind.

Their children: Eli, Oct. 20, 1819; Nathan; Gideon Gordon; Henry; Enos; John; Elizabeth (was married to Henry Penrod), and Susan (was married to Jacob Inbody).

Eli and Nathan, when grown, worked among the O. O. Amish Mennonites in Holmes County, Ohio, and later were both married to O. O. Amish Mennonite girls in Holmes County, Ohio.

GREAT GRANDFATHER JOHN MILLER

His children were: Joseph; John; Eli; Elizabeth, married to Jerry Hochstetler; Kathrine, married to Jonas Miller; Barbara, married to Eli Chupp; Anna, married to Mathews R. Rhinesmith, and Fanny, married to Benjamin Miller.

Grandfather Eli Chupp, with his wife and four oldest children, moved to Elkhart County, Indiana, in 1851, making the trip by team and wagon. This country was new at that time. They built themselves a log cabin in the woods. They did not have a door for a while, just a heavy blanket. When they had fresh meat the wolves would come to the house at night.

Grandfather would have to get up, go out and crack the whip to chase them away.

One time their neighbor was clearing and burning brush, and the wind was from that direction. They had just a tiny baby and they had quite a time to keep it from suffocating in the smoke.

Once Grandfather said to his granddaughter, "When we came here, all the money I had was five dollars. What do you think I bought?" She did not know, so he said, "I bought a big kettle to heat water and to cook our eatables in."

They had to go through many hardships that this generation knows nothing of.
